

Tagging, Tweeting, Texting: Keeping your kids safe in Cyberspace

Internet Safety Presentation with Katie LeClerc Greer
Monday, January 9, 2012 6:30 pm
Seven Lakes High School Performing Arts Center

Our kids are doing WHAT? What can I do to protect them? Is Facebook safe? Is my child being cyberbullied? What's texting? What's next?

It's overwhelming being a parent today in our technology-driven society. Keeping up with the latest trends and dangers seems like an impossible task. Katie will walk you through this, and let you know what's new, what's now, and what's next when it comes to your children and technology, and provides parents with proactive initiatives to keep kids safe online.

Please note: This is a presentation for parents only. No children allowed.

Topics that may be covered:

- ❖ Cyber bullying laws and legislation: What do they mean? What are the implications?
- ❖ What's coming up and how do we prepare? Updates on the latest technology trends and dangers
- ❖ Interactive gaming: is it safe?
- ❖ Social networking: "I don't get it, HELP!"
- ❖ Case examples and real life implications
- ❖ Overview of what message Katie sends to students
- ❖ "How do I make my house safe for me and my family?"
- ❖ Gone mobile: "text messaging, wi-fi, and portable computers makes it harder to keep kids safe. What can I do?"

Sponsored by the Alexander, Beck, Beckendorff, and Seven Lakes PTAs/PTSA
For more information, please contact 1stVPprograms@raepta.org.